

Alfa Romeo?

Rob Walker's are enthusiastic and progressive Alfa Romeo Specialists, and offer a first class personal service to all owners, and potential owners, of these outstanding cars. Every enquiry, whether by telephone or letter, receives immediate attention from one of the company's Directors, all of whom are Alfa Romeo enthusiasts.

As one of Alfa Romeo's largest Distributors in the U.K., Rob Walker's offer not only the finest selection of all Alfa Romeo cars, but also really efficient workshops manned by Alfa trained mechanics, with the backing of official factory engineers, and a really well-stocked comprehensive spare parts organisation.

Quite frankly, the current range of Alfa models being produced at the new £100m Arese factory are very fine cars. For further details and information contact

LOTUS?

Why do Rob Walkers like the Elan? Denis Jenkinson and his colleagues in the motoring press have already extolled the virtues of this exciting car so we will merely say that if you need superb handling, vivid acceleration and luxurious accommodation for two—the Elan will provide these and more! Despite the current shortage, Rob Walkers can offer a selection of all Elan models in a wide range of colours and specifications and will be delighted to take your present car in part exchange.

Rob Walkers have the largest Lotus spares organisation outside the factory and are proud of an after sales service second to none. Being fully experienced in supplying cars on a national basis we can confidently provide a country-wide delivery service to save you time and trouble. So why worry about where to buy your Elan—Rob Walkers have the answer, and prospective purchasers would be well advised to contact,
